CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

For choice cake, pies and confectionery go to Cunningham's.

"MARSH" - Third part of Victor Hugo's Les Misérables, has just been received at Bowen, Stewart & Co's.

TO PHYSICIANS. - Rankin's Half yearly Abstract, Visiting List for 1863, Pocket Dose Book, at Bowen, Stewart & Co's.

The wholesale dry goods houses in Albany by agreement all close at 7 P. M., to give their employees an opportunity to drill.

The faster we wile, in this rushing tide of war, the sooner we shall get out of it - Providence.

The phosphoric portion of a fire fly is its stern. If Humphrey Marshall were a fire fly, he would illuminate the world like a second sun. - Providence.

Secretary Seward, in reply to a letter from Mr. Gamble of Cincinnati, says that foreigners emigrating to this country will not be held liable to military duty.

Capt. Ben. F. Reed of the 63d regiment will give $5 each as additional bounty for fifteen recruits for his company. This offer is open for acceptance up to Saturday next.

A CRADLING COUPLE. - A few weeks since a farmer in Perry county cradled three acres of wheat, and that night his wife was to be outdone by him, cradled three babies.

We are willing to publish runaways from the draft, with appropriate cuts, for one half the price usually paid for advertising runaway negroes. - Providence.

All of Lieut. Armstrong's recruits, 17th regiment Indiana volunteers, will report themselves to him at headquarters, Macy House, on Friday next, 10 o'clock A. M.

ADAPTED TO HOME SERVICE. - An Irishman in New Haven, having had nine children in eight years' wedlock, applied for an exemption certificate, "because he could serve his country so much better at home."

A GOOD JOKE ON "OUR" STATE OFFICERS. - Yesterday a pair of cut-throat gentlemen were passing the public office on Kentucky avenue, one of them very naively remarked, "There are our State officers."

Forty recruits, mostly from Decatur county, left the Union Depot last night to join the 7th Indiana in General Pope's army. Recruits for the old regiments are leaving every day, in addition to the new regiments that Indiana is pouring into the field.

The telegraph mentions the bursting of a water spout over a valley in Los Angeles county, California, covering the ground to the depth of fourteen feet. Could not religious folks pray up water spouts for Richmond and Charleston? It would be a good way to soak them out if the Lord is willing.

The $5 extra bounty offered by Capt. B. F. Reed, for recruits for the 63d regiment, is in tended for residents of Centre township. Hurry up, boys, there are only fifteen vacancies, and they will assuredly be filled.

Ready to Cash. - Capt. Reed's company will soon join it.

Cady & Co. have been getting in a very large stock of boots and shoes for the fall trade, and are selling "stacks" of goods daily. Their trade has increased rapidly since adopting the "one price and for cash" system, from which they do not depart.

They are now having been purchased before the advance in prices, they are enabled to sell at low rates.

A boy ten years of age in Cincinnati deliberately placed a pistol within ten inches of the head of another boy and fired. The ball missed its aim. The young scamp has been carrying a pistol for some time intimidating his comrades. Young America must be held in check or we will become a nation of slaves.

ICE. - The greatest luxury in warm weather is ice. Without it how could we endure the heated term? Blesses be the man that invented ice-ice in summer. Mr. Geo. W. Pitts, on Vermont street, has the nicest, cleanest and most transparent ice which he delivers each morning to his customers. Call on Mr. Pitts and he will keep you cool.

The New Albany Ledger suggests that if they have in that city a number of lawyers famous for charging, let us get up a company of lawyers for the war. We could raise a company of the same sort here that would beat the world on a charge.

We would suggest that ex Clerk, Quarter-Master General and would be Senator New be appointed Captain of that company.

A CONTRABAND'S ESTIMATE OF JACKSON. - The Augusta Chronicle says that some one asked Stonewall's old negro boy why he never came to be so much in the confidence of his master. "Lord sir," said he, "massa never tells me nuffin; but the way I knows is this—massa says his prayers twice a day, morning and night; and if he gets out of bed two or three times in the night to pray, I just commence packing my haversack, for I knows there will be the devil to pay next day."

A SUGGESTION. - Would it not be a good idea, as fast as the enrollment of those subject to draft is completed, to have the several wards of the city, to have the list published. It is a difficult matter to get all the names. The published list would be carefully scanned, and if any were skulking or avoiding the draft, or had been accidentally overlooked, their neighbors would soon detect it.

The Camp Meeting at Acton is still in progress and will continue until after the Sabbath. Excellent order is maintained on the ground and in the vicinity, and the meetings are many of them very lively. Quite a number have connected themselves with the church and profess to have experienced a change of heart. The 11 o'clock sermon next Sabbath will be preached by the Rev. Mr. McMullen.

Captain Orth's company from Lafayette marched up Washington and down Meridian streets yesterday, and elicited unqualified praise for their fine soldierly appearance. It would be impossible for regulars to beat them. Indeed as they marched past it was concluded they were regulars, and we should have come to the same conclusion had we not recognized the gallant Captain at their head.

From the 70th. - A letter from a member of the 70th regiment, received yesterday, states that they are at Bowling Green, occupying the trenches built by Buckner. The health of the regiment is generally good. The letter states that one of the sentries was fired at by a negro three times, but he was not hurt, and penetrated a vital part, but was turned aside by a miniature which the soldier had in his pocket.

ICE. - Mr. Joseph Butsch, one of the most enterprising ice dealers of the Northwest, has, as he instructs us to announce, an abundance of ice for home consumption, and also plenty for foreign trade. All orders from dealers abroad will be promptly filled. Mr. Butsch's residence is South street, where all orders will be promptly filled. Communications through the Postoffice promptly attended to.

The quality of Mr. Butsch's ice is unequalled, and from the quantity he has on hand, he can supply all customers at home and abroad. 15-dlm

The field and staff officers of the 12th and 16th regiments are as follows: Col. Reuben Williams; Major, S. D. Kempton; Adjutant, Jared D. Bond; Quartermaster, James A. McCallan; Surgeon, Wm. Lomas; 1st Assistant Surgeon, Noble P. Howard; 2d Assistant Surgeon, Alfred B. Taylor.

16th. - Colonel, Thos. J. Lucas; Lieut. Col., Joel Wolfe; Major, John M. Orr; Adjutant, Robert Conover; Quartermaster, Henry B. Hill; Surgeon, Geo. F. Chittenden; Assistant Surgeon, George G. Odorne.

FRESH OYSTERS. - It will be seen by an advertisement in this day's paper, that Geo. W. Hawes, No. 3, North Illinois street, opposite the Bates House, is sole agent for the sale of Mann & Co's celebrated Baltimore oysters. From the well-known energy and enterprise of Mr. Hawes, purchasers may be assured that their orders will always be promptly filled. Mr. Hawes never does anything by halves, and whatever he undertakes he accomplishes. If he promises oysters, he will have them on hand, and if he promises Business Directories, he will get them out without fail. Lovers of dealers in oysters, call on Mr. Hawes.

TWO HORSES STRAYED OR STOLEN. - Strayed or stolen from the subscribers, on West street, near the corporation line, on the night of the 18th inst., two horses. One is a Mustang mare, with a letter R branded on her rump, a light bay, shod all round, and had on a leather halter. The other is a bay horse, three years old, shod all round with new shoes, a little white on the near hind foot, had on a leather halter, about 16 hands high. A reward will be given for the return of the horses, or for information that will lead to their recovery. Address Wm. A. Klingler, Zionsville, Ind., or Robt. Rozenshild, Indianapolis.

A PATRIOTIC SPIDER. - A Corinth correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette tells a story of a spider and its web which is strange if true. It may be like some "intelligent contraband" rags, but the writer is willing to swear it is reliable. He says a red, white and blue spider has spun a web on the branch of a tree in the encampment of the 22d Ohio, which he calls the words "Washington," "Peace" and "Union" distinctly traceable in raised Roman letters. The web is circular and divided into four sectors - Washington being on one, Peace on the other and Union on the third. What would the patriotic insect intend writing on the fourth sector the correspondent does not intimate.

REGIMENTAL ORDER. Headquarters, 79th Regt. Ind. August 20, 1862. All soldiers belonging to the 79th regiment are hereby notified to report to their company or regiment immediately. All soldiers belonging to the 79th regiment who are absent after the 23d inst., will be reported as deserters and treated accordingly. By order, LEWIS MARKER, Captain Commanding. P. G. KELSEY, Adjutant, pro tem. 20-3
